SANCTUARY · WEEK FOUR

A school for the formation of the saints

For whoever leads: read down the page. Bold lines are everyone's.

OPENING PRAYER

Leader O God and Father of all, whom the whole heavens adore:

People Let the whole earth also worship you, all nations obey you, all tongues confess and bless you, and men, women, and children everywhere love you and serve you in peace.

TABLE

Enjoy each other's company with food and drink.

The sheet is above

BEFORE THE READING

Blessed Lord, who caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and the comfort of your Holy Word we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE · EPHESIANS 1:15–23

Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.

SCRIPTURE · MATTHEW 5:1–12

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: and he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

REFLECTION

The Church molds and shapes humans into the image of Christ.

1. Look at the traits described in the Matthew passage. Who is a Christian you admire because their life reflects these traits of Jesus? How do you think that person became that way?

2. What is the difference between going to church and being formed by church?

3. God intends for us to grow as saints together rather than alone. How have you been a part of someone else's formation at Redeemer? How have others been a part of yours?

4 Look again at Matthew 5:1–12. Where do you see your own formation already taking hold? Which of these do you most want God to cultivate in your life during this season?

CLOSING PRAYER

Leader Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

People Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Leader Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will grant their requests: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

You may sing together from the Parish Songbook. Prayers may be offered for each other and our neighbors.

People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Leader

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the Cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name. Amen.
